Circle of life - Science by Doing

Posted by ctilley2 on Fri, 2014-11-21 09:23

This Science by Doing online resource covers ecosystems, food chains and webs, scientific classification, ecosystem management and sustainability.

This resource is an inquiry-based learning sequence of hands-on activities, digital interactives, animations and videos. Students can experience scientific fieldwork and learn how to develop a scientific argument.

Teacher guide, activity sheets and assessment items available.
