A Never-Ending Supply

Posted by sat on Thu, 2016-02-25 07:50

This online resource is an introduction to renewable energy sources.

The resource is a short video (2 min 44 sec) that provides information on a range of renewable energy sources. It begins with a brief explanation of non-renewable resources then introduces the concept of renewable energy sources and describes the features of a number of renewable energy sources.

This resource also provides support materials and tips for teachers.
