SOP: Performing a chicken wing dissection

Posted by sat on Thu, 2017-12-07 00:48

This downloadable resource details the dissection of a chicken wing.

This resource is a SOP (Standard Operating Procedure) that details the method—including photographs—for how to perform a chicken wing dissection.

The accompanying example risk assessment should be used as a guide only, and users should consider risks and safety measures in their local environment before proceeding.
