Science ASSIST Website Terms of Use

Science ASSIST is a national online advisory service for Australian school science educators and technicians created by the Australian Science Teachers Association (ASTA) in consultation with Science Education Technicians Australia (SETA) and is managed and maintained by ASTA.

By using the Science ASSIST website, you are agreeing to be bound by the following terms and conditions ("Website Terms of Use"). The information on this site is provided with the objective of building the professional capabilities of teachers, technicians and other professionals associated with the delivery of practical activities in science education.

Science ASSIST may modify these Terms of Use at any time. The modified terms and conditions will apply from the date they are published on the site. We recommend you bookmark this page and revisit regularly. If you do not agree to any of the modified terms you should stop using our site.

Your subscription

If you have a valid subscription to Science ASSIST, you must

- Agree that you will not share your organisation's username and password outside your organisation.
- Agree that you will not share the resources developed by Science ASSIST outside your organisation, unless they have the CC BY 4.0 notice.

If you suspect that someone outside your organisation knows your username and password, then you must notify us as soon as possible at dpo@asta.edu.au

We will assume that you wish to renew your membership in January each year unless you inform us otherwise.

Liability

Science ASSIST provides information for teachers and technicians involved in the teaching of science in Australian schools. While Science ASSIST does its best to update information on our website there may be occasions where the information is out of date. We also do not guarantee that the content on our website is free from errors or omissions.

Science ASSIST accepts no liability for any damages to individuals or property arising directly or indirectly from using the resources on this website. All content is provided in good faith and on the basis that readers will be responsible for making their own assessment of the matters discussed herein, and that they should verify all relevant representations, statements and information. Risk assessments and appropriate safety precautions must always be undertaken and are the sole responsibility of the user.

Third-party websites

Science ASSIST contains links to third party websites that have information relevant to the resources that we have either curated or developed. We have provided them for information purposes only and believe that they are suitable for the Australian school science audience. We have no control over the information on a third-party website and as such are not responsible for the accuracy or content of any third-party websites that we link to from our website. The use of such links is entirely at your own risk and Science ASSIST accepts no responsibility or liability for the content, use or availability of such third-party websites.

If you use the links provided on this website to access a third party's website, you acknowledge and agree that the terms of use, including licence terms, set out on the third party's website apply to the use which may be made of the materials on that third party's website.

Intellectual property

All resources developed by Science ASSIST from 1 July 2020

All resources developed by Science ASSIST beyond 1 July 2020 remain the intellectual property of ASTA (unless indicated otherwise) and are protected by the Australian Copyright Act of 1968 (see <https://www.legislation.gov.au/Series/C1968A00063>).

While you have a valid subscription, you may download, use, copy and distribute information within your organisation, provided that you acknowledge Science ASSIST.

All resources developed by Science ASSIST prior to 1 July 2020

All resources developed by Science ASSIST prior to 1 July 2020 remain the intellectual property of ASTA (unless indicated otherwise) and are protected by the Australian Copyright Act of 1968.

All resources developed by Science ASSIST prior to 1 July 2020 can be used under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) licence unless indicated otherwise [Excluded Material].

Except in relation to Excluded Material this CC BY 4.0 licence allows you to:

- Share — copy and redistribute the material in any medium or format;
- Adapt — remix, transform, and build upon the material;
- Use — for any purpose, even commercially;

provided you attribute ASTA as the source of the copyright material. ASTA requests attribution as: "From the Science ASSIST website: <http://assist.asta.edu.au>".

Excluded materials

The Science ASSIST, ASTA and SETA logos, other logos and trademark protected material are not licensed under a CC BY licence and may not be used.

Confidentiality and privacy

As a user of our site, you agree to comply with the terms of the Science ASSIST Privacy Policy.
